

Terry Fox ES Learning Styles Workshop

Curious about how your child learns? Ever wonder if your learning style matches your child's? Do you sometimes find it hard to guide your child with their homework? Are you simply curious about how different learning styles impact how we go about accomplishing tasks? If you answered yes to any of these...perhaps this is the workshop for you!

Presented by: Sharon Reichstein, a special education teacher with over 15 years experience

When: Monday, February 5th 6:30pm - 8:00pm

Where: Terry Fox Elementary School Library

Who should attend: Parents and their TFES child(ren)

This is an interactive workshop that you attend with your child. It will be geared for students in the grade 2 - 8 range.

RSVP: Please send us an email to let us know you will be attending the workshop at terryfoxschoolcouncil@gmail.com

My name is Sharon Reichstein and I am special education teacher with over 15 years teaching in the classroom. I am the owner of PossAbilities Educational Consulting. My passion is to work with children with learning disabilities. I love when students understand how they learn and know how to advocate for what they need in order to succeed! I believe that when we light up abilities, there are endless possibilities. Join us and find out how your child learns best.

(This workshop is being hosted by the Terry Fox Parent Council and is being funded by the Ministry of Education through a Parents Reaching Out Grant.)
